

TIMELINE (#6B) JANUARY, 1960; DIARY ENTRIES

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Researching our "Wedding and our Married Life" book, I found my own handwritten notes that served as our diary for the time period January 1, 1960, through May 8, 1960, which then ended abruptly. They appear on a total of three 8.5" x 11" pages. Since my January 1960 entries are typical, only they are shown below.

Most of the events during that time period were very mundane since we had just moved into our apartment in Pomona, and I had just started my job at General Dynamics/Pomona Division. They deal with reading books, going to movies, going to taped TV shows, taking technical classes, visiting people, etc. There was only one significant exception, the January 13th entry written by Barbara Boyer.

The entries are copied essentially word-for-word exactly the way I wrote them in 1960. As in my original notes, B stands for Barbara and T stands for Tom. To clarify titles, I've used quotation marks for "Book Names" and Brackets for [Movie Names].
